Consent for Release of Personal Information

Collection and use of Personal Information

The University of Victoria collects, uses, discloses and retains personal information only in compliance with the University Act and the British Columbia Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. The University of Victoria collects the personal information on this form pursuant to section 26(a) and (c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

The information provided in this form will be used only for the purposes of recording consent for the release of information on disability related academic accommodations. For a detailed listing of the types of personal information the University collects and the purposes for such collection see Schedule A, Procedures for the Management of Personal Information. Should you have any questions concerning your personal information, please contact the University Secretary's office at foipp@uvic.ca or (250) 472-4914.

As a condition of registering with the Resource Centre for Students with a Disability (RCSD), you are required to give your consent to the exchange of information about your required academic accommodations with your instructors and appropriate staff of the University of Victoria (Section A). If you wish to give permission to the RCSD to release information to other individuals or institutions, please complete Section B of this form as well.

This consent is considered valid for the duration of your study at the University of Victoria. You may withdraw or amend your consent at any time by notifying the RCSD in writing. Please refer to the University's Protection of Privacy policy (GV0235) for more information on the University's obligation to protect your personal information.
